1-The Learning Objectives

The topic of this lesson is about "mercantile contracts" and it aims to
-teach students of law subjects and terms concerning contracts, its definition and classification introduced to them in English.
-make them able to read and discuss about the above topics in English.
-master as much as possible legal terms presented in the lesson.

2-Develop the Introduction

The teacher is going to ask some question to motivate students and to elicit information which students master as:
-what does the term mercantile mean?
-what is the synonym to the word mercantile?
-who can, depending on your information, define contracts?

3-Plan the Specific Learning Activities (the main body of the lesson)

As you know, mercantile contracts are part of the mercantile law which govern and regulate the deal and commerce in the country. i.e. The mercantile law groups that are measured significant in business and comprises, laws related to contracts partnerships companies, insurance, carriage of goods etc.

Mercantile contract is defined as an agreement by which one or several persons bind themselves, in favour of one or several persons to give, to do, or not to do something.

Contracts are classified into:
1-Bilateral and unilateral.
2-Gratuitous and onerous.
3-commutative and aleatory.
4-Nominate and innominate.
5-Consensual, formal or real.

1-Bilateral and unilateral contracts

Bilateral contract is the one which normally imposes reciprocal obligations on the parties such as contracts of sale. Unilateral contracts, on the other hands, impose obligations on one of the parties only like donations.

4-Plan to check for understanding

Many questions are asked about the lesson to check students' understanding as:
-who can define contracts?
-who can classify contracts?
-who can translate the following sentence or passage?
-who can give a word synonymous to….
-who can pronounce the following words?

5-Conclusion and Preview

In this part a quick review of the lesson is made, also an assignment and preparation for the next lecture are given.
6-References
Additional Resources
www.eiilmuniversity.ac.in

Instructor Nada M. Hindi